County Showground

Join us for another fun day out—no business, just relax and enjoy!

Morning Speakers

- Debbie Hill from Perry's Field to Fork will be talking about the Perrys of Eccleshall story and the start of Perry's Field to Fork, an Artisan Butchery and Cookery School delivering the ultimate cooking class. The school is located in the historic Grade II listed building in the market town of Eccleshall.

- Pam Moseley from Quirky Flowers will be demonstrating how to make a Christmas Wreath.

Afternoon Speaker

- Will Kirk, the popular Repair Shop presenter on the hit BBC TV series, specialising in expert furniture restoration.
- Shop 'til you drop! - plenty of interesting crafts and food stalls to browse including Country Markets.
- Bring along a packed lunch—tea, coffee and water will be available.
- Level access through venue doors.
- Please apply early as these events are very popular and spaces are being allocated on a first come first served basis. Please send a stamped addressed envelope if you require tickets posting to you. Otherwise these will be emailed to the lead contact.
- The event is open to members only and no refunds will be available after the closing date.

Apply no later than Thursday 10th October by completing the events application form
