

ANNUAL COUNCIL MEETING

WHEN

Saturday 9th October 2021
10am—12pm

The Staffordshire Federation of Women's Institute's 102nd Annual Council Meeting will again be held online.

There will be a brief review of the past year and we will outline our plans for the coming year.

Jeryl Stone, NFWI Honorary Treasurer, will be our guest speaker.

Competition winners will be announced.

Each WI is invited to nominate a representative so that they can relay the information back to their fellow members.

Entry is free and registration is through Eventbrite. Please google or click on <https://tinyurl.com/y57e77tt> and this will take you straight to the webpage.

September 2021

GUEST SPEAKER

Jeryl Stone

NFWI Honorary Treasurer

Jeryl was elected to the NFWI Board in June 2017 and as NFWI Hon. Treasurer in June 2021. She sits on all committees ex officio and chairs the finance committees and is a director of the WI Enterprise Board.

Jeryl chaired the Warwickshire Federation between 1999 and 2002 and again from 2012 – 2015. She served on several federation committees

She represents the Warwickshire Federation on the Corunna Court Management Committee covering the site on which the federation offices are located.

Jeryl has been a member of Hampton Lucy and Charlecote WI and committee for well over 30 years serving as President for two terms of office as well as holding various committee roles.

Jeryl has been the practice manager of an architectural practice for over 40 years and also manages a personal property portfolio within Warwickshire.

She sits on a local property management committee comprising approximately 150 mixed residential units

She has been a volunteer with Macmillan Cancer support sitting on both the UK forum and Regional forum representing the Midlands area.

Jeryl's interests include salmon fishing, horse racing, gardening, flowers, cookery and preserving her own garden produce.